You're the craziest person

because you wouldn't be Tony if you weren't crazy.
I hope that we will always be good friends even after we're out of school. I wish you all the luck in the world and remember if you ever need a friend I'm one.

Tony
To a very good friend
even though you have been

Many years from now
when I will look through this book, I will see your face, hear your laugh and remember your smile. Although the cover may be dusty, and the pages may be worn, inside it will hold riches
no man could dare measure.
For inside this one book is a year of our lives; but only a glimpse can be shown.
The rest must be held close as memories . . .

Dedication: Miss Anne Shipwash

She came to us a stranger, but in a few short months she had made her way into our hearts
as a beautiful, talented person.
She gave many of us an instrument
we had never even seen before and taught us how to play it.
In a few short years our band became the pride of Randleman and we owed it all to her.

This past spring she showed us something more important — the will to live. The strength to keep going when all the odds are against you. She showed us strength, courage, and a very strong faith in God.

It meant a lot to us, the seniors, to bring her home the first #1 rating our band had ever received. We brought home a #1 trophy but we already had a #1 band director. We love you, Miss Shipwash.

Nothing we have achieved in the past — will ever be good enough again.

FEATURES

This section is put together especially for you

To show your hopes, dreams,
and realities come true.

You were given your talents by God up above.

This is the way He sends you
His love.

Years from now, you'll look to the past.

As time goes on, these memories will last.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

The time came early, the season still warm — warm, like her smile and her eyes,
Dark was her hair like the night —
But dazzling like the shimmer of her crown —
our queen . . .

FOOTBALL

A year of a big let down. Only being nine points from undefeated and two points from conference champs. We had to settle for second best, a team with no super hero's just a lot of great athletes that played like a team. A team with a winning attitude. For us seniors the year is over, but we left our mark on Randleman High School with a 7-3 mark our sophomore and an 8-2 mark our junior and senior years and tied for the title

Basketball

Until you put on that uniform and run out on the floor with your nerves tied in knots, you don't know what it's like to play basketball. It's probably the most gruelling of the sports. "Why play," you ask? When you see the winning basket go in or the face of each team member after a victory, you know why you played, and I'm just glad I got a chance to play at Randleman

Basketball

I have really enjoyed playing high school basketball. I only wish me last two seasons could have been as successful as the first, or more so.

Now that I look back, I can see that I got more out of it than just the enjoyment of playing. Just the privilege of representation my school and being associated with the coaches, managers, and the other girls on the team has meant so much to me.

Track, the most individual sport in our school. Many may not have recognized it as a sport, but not any more. With a new coach, Randleman won its first track meet last year, which it had not done in the past five years. A new track having been built and no one from last year team, the whole team should be improved considerably. Track is no longer something to ready for football . . . it is a sport.

CLASS PROPHECY

We always knew the Class of '79 would be a success, here are a few big successes.

Scott Brown is teaching special therapy at Wake Forest.

Vicki Taylor married Mr. Ed.

Susan Ranyon is now touring France with her drums. She calls it the Boom Boom.

Mike Huffman went on to play Pro Basketball for the New York Rockets. I know there's no such team, and so do you, but don't tell Mike.

Wendy Potter went on to become editor for THE L.A. TIMES. Last week it went bankrupt.

Joel Brown is head photographer for PLAYBOY.

Stacy Farrow is now the Driver's Education teacher in place of Mr. Kirkman.

Steve South took the place of Mrs. Brenda Cox who is expecting her fifteenth child.

John Cheek went on to defeat G-1 Joe with Kung-Fu Grip.

Vann Hilliard — lost at sea.

Brenda Russell has just purchased the van from the movie Up In Smoke. Last seen heading south.

Diane Hilliard went on to win beauty pageant after beauty pageant. Last week she won Miss Worthville.

Anne Lineberry went on to become manager for the New York Yankees.

Perry Brown is now growing a beard full-time.

Keith Gregory sells penny loafers in Asheboro.

Wanda Cheek was voted most valuable on Siberia's Volleyball Team.

Connie Anderson finally got her KISS. She's got her own group called SMOOCH.

Ricky Cockman went into show business. He's the understudy for Lassic.

Brent Spencer was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame for his many devoted years to the Devils Cowboys.

Sharon Watson became widely known as a model. Last last week she was the centerfold for THID AND STREAM.

These few people are just an example of how far the class of '79 has gone. If you thought we were crazy in school you should see us As Time Goes On.

In Memory of Elizabeth Horton

To some, just a teacher.

To most, a friend.

She taught us how to live and love.

Needed her.

If we all, could only be like her.

But, we remember her with love and respect.

Could have wanted it.

Her kindness, and her love will Always be with us.

Things would be so different.

We once had one more year to take all those tests,
S.A.T. and achievements, we all did our best Upper classmen they called us,
such a different feeling That year was harder and much more revealing
We now scared others, we were still free and alive,
For we had one more year on which to thrive

The last one is now upon us, our days are too few Where will we go to? What will we do?
We'll look back on the years and
feel very sad.
We'll remember all the good times and the victories we had.
We'll look back on those years time and time again.
To a place you call school, but to us, an old friend.
Soon we will be gone, leaving all of it to you Please love and cherish it, for your days are so few
Yes, we laughed in the sunshine, and played in the snow,
For once we had three more years of school yet to go

*Remember us with smiles and laughter,
For that is how we'll remember you.
If you can only remember us with tears,
Then don't remember us at all.*

*The sunset is brightest before the darkness overshadows,
As the candle is brightest before it goes out.
As the day slips into darkness;
Our lives slip into tomorrow.*

The Annual Staff would like to thank everyone for their support which is reflected in these advertisements. Your continued patronage is deeply appreciated, for without it this book could not have been possible.

In Conclusion. . .

I guess I'm glad that this annual is finally finished but I can't help but feel a little sad. It means that the end of our four years is drawing closer. It's only a matter of time before we're out on our own with only ourselves to depend on. This applies not only to the seniors but to every student in this school. This time it represents everyone of you and is a last memory for all.

I hope everyone enjoys this annual as much as we the annual staff enjoyed putting it together. We had our ups and downs as did every annual staff in the past but we all benefited from the experience. Good luck to everyone, especially my staff. And thank you, Stephanie, for keeping most of my secrets about the book.

The time for us to go is drawing near,
But our experiences at RHS have left us with many memories to cherish.
We'll leave feeling not as if we have conquered the fundamentals of English, mathematics, and history
But as if we have conquered ourselves
As time goes on,
You'll always remain a part of us,
Just as we'll always remain a part only,

I don't know how we met. I guess you can say it just happened. Somehow we got to be friends and I want to say I'm glad. You're a really sweet and good-looking guy. I'm sorry that you're a junior, cause that means you'll be a senior next year & then you won't be here! I hope we get together in one way or the other before you run off into the world and forget about me. Don't you dare forget about that sweet little girl named Debbie who wrote in your annual. I don't really know what else to write, cause I don't know how to tell you how much I care. Just don't forget me EVER. You better let me sign your annual next year cause theres no telling what I might write. I hope we still get to see each other after you graduate. Stay the same & I'll be your friend forever. Best of luck in life.

Keep
touch

Love
Debbie

What can I say? I have been thinking you for my friend and my neighbor have helped me through many of my problems and I hope we have to find a friend as you've been to me. If you ever need someone to talk to in Albany, then I hope next year when you become a big senior you won't forget me. Stay as sweet, and as nice as you are. May your future be
